Petitioner filed a correction petition stating that the extent of the land to be held by the family is wrongly assessed as 12 acres, which happened as a result of exclusion of the petitioner from her family, who at the relevant time, was a minor. By the impugned order it is stated that what has been taken into consideration is total number of 6 members and not 5. If that be so, there may not be any mistake. The original order is not produced to see as to how many members were included in the family. In such circumstances, there is no material to show that the order suffers from any error apparent on the face of the record. As per Section 82(1)(c) of the K.L.R. Act, in the case of a family of more than 5 members the extent of the land to be possessed only 10 standard acres increased by one standard acre for each member in excess of five. Therefore the extent of the land to be allowed cannot be more than 12 acres as already allowed by the Land Board. There is no merit in this revision and the same is dismissed.

Judge.
